Carolina Hensley joins Progress Equity Partners

We are pleased to announce the addition of Carolina Hensley to the Progress Equity team as Vice President in the Denver office. Ms. Hensley brings 12 years of experience in investment banking, mezzanine investing and private equity.

“We are excited to have such an experienced individual joining our team” said Steve Sangalis, Partner in the Denver office. “I am especially pleased to rejoin with Carolina after working with her for several years at Rocky Mountain Capital Partners. Carolina has completed numerous project assignments for Progress Equity over the years, therefore we know firsthand the quality individual that is joining our team.”

Progress Equity continues to actively pursue investments in the lower middle market. For more information on the firm and our investment criteria, please visit us at ProgressEquity.com.
